

Official Rules for the Idaho Friends of NRA

2026 100 Gun Raffle

This is a raffle for The NRA Foundation (hereinafter, "Foundation") in association with local Banquet Committees for the Friends of the NRA. The raffle is hosted through the NRA Foundation committee "Idaho State Friends of NRA" (hereinafter, "ISFNRA") and is hosted on the "Idaho State Rifle and Pistol Association, Inc." (hereinafter, "ISRPA") Website. ISFNRA will operate as the "Administrator" of the raffle.

There is no cash substitute for prizes except as listed below for the Grand Prize. Raffle prize winners will not have right to substitute another prize for any raffle prize offered through this drawing. Tickets are not transferrable. The ticket holder is the person who is named on a ticket which is submitted for entry into the raffle. A named ticket holder is the only person eligible to take transfer of any prize drawn for that ticket.

Ticket purchasers must be 21 years of age or older. The minimum age of 21 is required because some of the prizes are handguns which are eligible for transfer only to persons of that age and older. All ticket holders must be eligible to lawfully receive and possess firearms and/or ammunition. All Federal and State laws apply. This raffle is void where prohibited.

> > ATTENTION NON-IDAHO RESIDENTS < < Please be aware of your State of Residency's current firearm laws. The winner of any firearm in this raffle must be able to take possession of such in accordance with all applicable laws. IN ADDITION: Firearms are NOT transferable!! The Prize Winner whose name appears on the Winning Ticket is the person required to claim the firearm from the FFL.

The Grand Prize will be described as "Truck Full of Guns" and will include a new Custom 2026 RAM Rebel PowerWagon 2500 4X4 Crew Cab with NINE firearms as listed on drawing tickets. The Grand Prize will be the 131st item drawn from the ticket entries in this Reload Drawing. The winner of the Grand Prize will have the option of receiving a substitute cash prize of $1,000.00 instead of the Grand Prize.

This raffle is referred to as a "reload drawing." By that it is meant that each ticket purchased is eligible to win each gun drawn in this raffle after the ticket is purchased and duly submitted for entry. Winning tickets are returned to the pool of purchased tickets to be eligible for each subsequent drawing.

A completed ticket is officially recognized as submitted for the drawing when the ticket is delivered to Idaho State Friends of NRA headquarters in Meridian, Idaho, and when the ticket is accompanied by $100.00 US in collected funds. Ticket purchasers using personal checks should allow time ahead of the deadline for their checks to be submitted and clear banks said checks are issued upon.

Tickets must be officially received by the Administrator no later than 5 days preceding the drawing in order to be eligible for the drawing date set for that month. Tickets must be received by Idaho State Friends of NRA - Nampa, Idaho 83653

Raffle tickets may also be purchased online at: www.Friendsofnra.org/ID

The Administrator reserves the discretion to allow a completed ticket to be submitted for a drawing after the deadline if collected funds are verified for payment of said ticket.

The dates of drawing shall be as set forth in the schedule which is printed on each ticket.

Employees of the NRA who administer this Idaho raffle and their household members shall not be eligible to purchase tickets or win prizes in this raffle.

An employee of the NRA or another person who has been designated by the Administrator shall draw tickets at the drawing. In no instance will any person who is a ticket purchaser or a household family member of a ticket purchaser actually draw for winning tickets in this raffle.

Drawings for the first 30 firearms will be held at a site named on the Facebook page for Idaho State Friends of NRA at url:
<https://www.facebook.com/IdahoStateFNRA>

Additional information for the raffle will be posted at said Facebook page. Drawings will occur on respective drawing dates at times to be determined. The public may attend or view drawings. Information about drawing times will be made available on the day before the drawing. Drawing times can be confirmed on the Idaho State FNRA Facebook page referred to above or on the ISRPA website. Tickets will be kept secure by the ISFNRA or a designee of the Administrator. For drawing, tickets will be placed in a tumbler and mixed prior to the time of drawing. The websites for information are at www.Friendsofnra.org/ID or www.idahosrpa.org.

The drawing for the final 100 firearms and the grand prize will be on Saturday, October 24, 2026, beginning at 3:30 pm. The event is tentatively scheduled for the Revolution Event Center in Garden City, Idaho. Further information on this event can be found at the following webpage: www.Friendsofnra.org/ID

Firearm prizes will be delivered FOB to respective winners at RK GUNSMITHING gun shop located at 201 N Kings Rd #101, Nampa Idaho, or at the discretion of the Administrator, to a federally licensed firearms dealer per instructions mailed to firearm winners. The Administrator reserves the authority to agree and arrange with any winner to transport the firearm to another location for transfer of the firearm. It is the responsibility of each raffle prize winner to qualify for and obtain transfer of each firearm raffle prize within 90 days of that drawing. Failure of a raffle winner to qualify for and accept transfer of the firearm within that time will result in forfeiture of the prize to the Administrator. In the event that a person drawn for a raffle is not eligible to receive the prize drawn, the prize will be deemed forfeited to the raffle administrator.

Shipping for any firearm prizes will be limited to the 48 contiguous states of United States of America. Any winners will be responsible for shipping or obtaining their prizes. The Grand Prize "Truck Full of Guns" will include a new Custom 2026 RAM Rebel PowerWagon 2500 4X4 Crew Cab with NINE firearms (as listed on drawing tickets) will be available for delivery FOB Nampa, Idaho.

The firearms and prizes listed in this raffle have been secured and received on behalf of the Administrator. However, in the event of unavailability or other unforeseen circumstances, the Administrator reserves the right to substitute a firearm or prize of substantially equal value for any prize listed in this raffle.

To be eligible for entry into the drawing tickets must be completed with the following information: Buyer's complete name, complete mailing address, complete phone number, and Email address.

If paid by check, checks must be payable to "Idaho Friends of NRA" or your local Friends of NRA committee.

If payment is by credit card, the buyer must print: Exact name as it appears on the credit card, the credit card number, the card expiration date, the card security code, buyer billing zip code, the buyer Email address, the type of card, and the buyer signature on the back of the ticket stub.

NOTE: Credit card sales without this complete information cannot be processed and will not be included in any drawings.

Winners are responsible for any taxes and tax reporting required by law. The NRA Foundation and the Administrator make no representations as to the presence or absence of requirements for tax reporting or tax liabilities associated with the ticket purchases or prizes from this event. The NRA Foundation and the Administrator reserve the authority to issue appropriate tax reporting information for the winner of the Grand Prize or any single prize or in the event that a single person wins multiple prizes in this raffle event.

The NRA Foundation is the country's leading charitable organization in support of the shooting sports.
